"Todd approaches giving in a way that makes me ask the tough questions regarding my financial impact on the kingdom. Why am I here? Is God in charge of my business? What impact am I having? How am I honoring God with my business and finances? I am always refreshed and energized by our discussions and his ability to make me want to do more for Christ - spiritually, financially, and in all aspects of life." Paul Ten Haken President Click Rain "How does God prepare a man like Todd Knutson to be such a success in the development world? As a former player for me, I believe it is all about being a man of integrity and his ability to build trust and respect by his God given love for people. His confidence in leadership comes through living a consistently strong personal faith journey." Bob Young Hall of Fame College Football Coach University of Sioux Falls and the Winningest Football Coach in School History "I felt undeniably called to start a ministry and it took significant financial resources to make it work. Without Todd's mentorship, the ministry would not have gotten off the ground at all. Todd helped me make a plan, access the resources the ministry needed to launch and it is still impacting lives to this day."
