By JCI was introduced to Darian's book prior to applying to graduate school for a degree in Non Profit administration. This book actually gave me direction when I crafted my application to school along with my personal statement required for admission. It's been a thorough and fabulous point of reference. Now that I'm in my second semester, I've found it to be a perfect compliment to my required texts and a great additional resource for my papers. Bravo Darian! Looking forward to your next book.
