Roger Evans : Over the Farmer's Gate before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Over the Farmer's Gate:

Roger Evans has built up a large cult following over the last 25 years with his hugely popular column in the Dairy Farmer, for which he won the prestigious PPA Columnist of the Year Award in 2000. He also has a huge following every Saturday in the Western Daily Press. An articulate Shropshire dairy and poultry farmer all his life, Roger Evans' lively prose sheds light on the joys and daily challenges of his work. He is well-informed, realistic and funny in his comments about all aspects of his life as a farmer today. Popular at all the agricultural shows and a hot-ticket as an after-dinner speaker, Roger is widely regarded as one of the best modern spokesmen for the British farmer.

About the Author"Roger Evans has farmed for 45 years in Lydbury North, Shropshire. He has written a regular column for the Dairy Farmer for 30 years. He also has a weekly column in the Western Daily Press which attracts 50,000 readers. When polled, its readers said Roger's column was one of the most popular sections of the paper. He writes for Veterinary Times and Cow Management. He has been Chairman of the Dairy Co-operative First Milk and still serves on their board. He is also on the board of Dairy UK. Married with two children, Roger played rugby for Ludlow until he was 50 years old and was their club president for many years. His first book Good Evans! was a sell-out."
